FREE PARDON SUPPORT PROGRAM

If you or someone you know have been convicted of a crime, served the time, or feel you have been unjustly done wrong. We would like to hear from or them. A pardon is a government decision to allow a person to be relieved of some or all of the legal consequences resulting from a criminal conviction.

What is a Pardon?

A pardon may be granted before or after conviction for the crime, depending on the laws of the jurisdiction. In most cases there are two kind of request. The two most common forms are pardons, which forgive past crimes and restore civil rights, and commutations, which completely or partially reduce sentences for those in prison or on community supervision.

What is the Pardon Cost?

The cost for a pardon request is free of charge directly to any State or Federal Justice system. Some attorneys or group may charge a nominal fee or more for their services. National Ecclesiastical Paralegal Services do not charge any fee for seeking the pardon. We do request a non-refundable fee for membership and processing the request, which up to three requests (e.g. two State and one federal, three federal or three State, etc..). To have us complete your application, please feel free in completing the online request form above or you can do it yourself with the link above to the form.
